Du'as for the last ten nights of Ramadan

As the month of Ramadan enters its last phase, believers know the special favors bestowed in this month are ending. They pray that the month may not end without their being forgiven and answered. This Du'a has urgency in it, as though a desperate final call before the month slips by.

In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

O Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad. O Allah, You have said in Your revealed book, the month of Ramadan, in which the Qur'an was sent, a guidance for men, and clear signs of guidance and distinction (2:185).

Therefore, You have magnified the sanctity of the month of Ramadan, by revealing the Qur'an in it. And You have made it special, by placing the night of Qadr in it, and making it better than a thousand months. O Allah, and now, the days of Ramadan are nearing completion, and the nights are leaving us. And You know better than I do what status I have reached in this month, for You alone can calculate it, from all of creation.

So I ask You by what the angels close to You, Your sent Prophets, and Your virtuous servants have asked. That You bless Muhammad and his family, and save me from the fire, and make me enter Heaven, by Your mercy. Favour me by Your forgiveness and grace,

Du'a for 21st night

In the name of Allah the Beneficent, the Merciful.

O Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad. O (One) who causes the night to pass into the day, and the day to pass into the night.

O (One) who brings forth the living from the dead, and brings forth the dead from the living. O the Provider of sustenance for whomever He pleases, without measure.

O Allah, O Beneficent, O Allah, O Merciful. O Allah, O Allah, O Allah,

You have the most beautiful names, the highest examples, the grandeur, and the bounties. I beseech You to, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, and place my name, in this night, among the fortunate, and my soul among the martyrs, let my good deeds be (written) in the 'Illiyin (Book of the virtuous), and my evil deeds be forgiven.

(And I beseech You to) grant me a certainty which gives joy to my heart, and a faith which drives doubt away from me, and make me pleased with what You have granted me.

(And I beseech You to) Give us good in this world and good in the Hereafter, and save us from the punishment of the burning fire. (HQ 2:201)

(And I beseech You to) grant me in it (Laylatul Qadr) Your remembrance, and Your gratitude, and desire for (pleasing) You, turning (to You for repentance), and success, for all that You have granted Muhammad and his family. Peace be on him and on them.

Laylatul Qadr (the Night of Power)

The month of Ramadan has been singled out for special worship (Ibaadat) and exclusive favors. It is a month unlike other months. One reason for this, as defined by the Qur'an, is that the Holy Qur'an was revealed in this month. Says Allah in Surah al-Baqarah: The month of Ramadan, that in which the Qur'an was sent down; a guidance for mankind, and clear signs of guidance and distinction (2:185). In fact, according to a hadith of the 6th Imam (a), the other holy books were also revealed in this month.

Among the nights of Ramadan is one special night, which is better than a thousand months (HQ, 97:3). Good deeds performed on that single night are equal to those performed over a thousand months. It is the Night of Power (Laylatul Qadr), when the Qur'an was revealed. Some commentators believe it was the night when the Qur'an was brought down from Baytul M`amur (Heavenly abode), for Jibreel to reveal in parts to the Prophet (s). Others say it was the night when the Prophet received the entire Qur'an, but was asked to transmit it as and when the occasion demanded.

Laylatul Qadr is a celebration to commemorate the arrival of the final guidance for humans. It is a tribute to the commencement of the message revealed to mankind by their Creator, a message which shows them the way to achieve happiness in both the worlds. Just as the arrival of a child is celebrated, on its birth and then every year, as a bringer of joy and fulfillment for the family, Laylatul Qadr is celebrated as a bringer of light and guidance for mankind. Unlike the birthday which is celebrated with a feast for the senses, Laylatul Qadr includes a feast for the spirit, a feast of worship and prayers.

Some Ahadith indicate that the fate of every believer for the coming year is decreed on this night. That is why the Du`as for this night ask for special favors in the decree for the year. Believers are encouraged to stay awake the entire night, and pray for blessings and forgiveness. It is the holiest night of the year, and it would be unwise to be heedless of the tremendous benefits of this night.

It is reported in Hadith that whoever keeps awake on the nights of Qadr shall have his/her sins forgiven, even if they equal the number of the stars in the heaven.

It is also recommended to recite hundred Rak'aat (i.e. 50 Salaat of 2 Rak'aat each) on these nights. The practice of performing Qadha prayers on these nights has no origin in the books of Hadith. However, it is emphasized to fulfil the Qadha prayers as soon as it is possible, and some believers use this opportunity to perform Qadha prayers of six days (6 x 17 =102 Rak'aat).

Open the Qur'an and say:

In the name of Allah the Beneficent the Merciful.

O Allah bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad.

O Allah I ask You, for the sake of Your revealed Book, and what is in it, and in it is Your greatest name, and (all) Your beautiful names, and what is feared and hoped for, make me amongst those whom You have saved from the fire.

Place the Qur'an on the head and say:

O Allah, for the sake of this Qur'an, for the sake of the one You sent with it, for the sake of every believer You have praised in it, and for the sake of Your right over them, for none is more aware of Your right over them than Yourself.

Common A'maal for all three nights of Qadr

On all three nights of Laylatul Qadr, i.e. the 19th, 21st, and 23rd of Ramadan, the following acts are recommended:

a) Ghusl before sunset.

b) Two Rak'aat Salaat; in each Rak'ah after Surah Al-Hamd recite Surah Al-Ikhlaas 7 times.

c) After the Salaat say 70 times:

Astagh-firul-laaha wa atoobu ilayh* (I seek forgiveness of Allah, and I turn repentant to Him).

Open the Qur'an and, Place the Qur'an on the head and Repeat each of the following ten times.

- ❖ For Your sake, O Allah,
- ❖ for the sake of Muhammad (s),
- ❖ for the sake of `Ali (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Fatima (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Hasan (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Husayn (a),
- ❖ for the sake of `Ali bin (son of) Husayn (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Muhammad bin `Ali (a),
- ❖ for the sake of J'afar bin Muhammad (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Musa bin J'afar (a),
- ❖ for the sake of `Ali bin Musa (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Muhammad bin `Ali (a)
- ❖ for the sake of `Ali bin Muhammad (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Hasan bin `Ali (a),
- ❖ for the sake of Al Hujjat (the proof) (a)

d) Dua'a no. 2 for the Night of Qadr

In the name of Allah the Beneficent the Merciful.

O Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad.

O Allah, I am, on this night, a very humble servant of Yours. I have no control over gains and losses for myself, nor can I avert any evil from it. I bear witness to that over myself; I acknowledge to You my weakness and my lack of means. Therefore, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, and fulfil for me what You have promised me, and to all the believers, men and women, the (promise of) forgiveness on this night. And complete for me what You have given me. Surely, I am Your servant, poor, humble, weak, needy and disgraced.

O Allah, do not make me forgetful of Your remembrance, in what You have entrusted me, nor heedless of Your favors, in what You have given me, nor despairing of Your answer, even if it was delayed for me.

[Let this be on all occasions] in happiness or sorrow, in difficulty or ease, in health or sickness, in misfortunes or blessings, surely You listen to the Du'as (supplications).

e) Dua'a no.3 for the Night of Qadr

In the name of Allah the Beneficent the Merciful.

O Allah bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad.

O He who, existed before everything else, Then created everything, Then He will remain while everything else perishes.

O He who has none similar to Him. O He who, there is none in the elevated heavens, or in the deep earth, or above them or below them or between them, a God who is worshipped besides Him.

For You is praise, a praise which cannot be comprehended, except by You.

Bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, blessings which none can comprehend except You.

f) Dua'a no.4 for the Night of Qadr

The effect of the Du'as recited on the night of Qadr can have a tremendous impact on the coming year.

What we ask for on the night of decree can change our lives. That is why believers are told to be aware of the significance of this night, and spend the entire night in worship and prayers. Allah has offered us a chance to have a say in our fate, and such a chance will not come again until the following year.

In the name of Allah the Beneficent the Merciful.

O Allah bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad.

O Allah, let it be that when You decree and ordain from the matters which are certain, that when You distinguish in the matters which are wise on the night of Qadr, in the decree which cannot be reversed nor changed, that You write me amongst those who will go for pilgrimage (hajj) to Your holy House, whose Hajj is approved, whose efforts are appreciated, whose sins are forgiven, whose evil deeds have been pardoned. And from what You decree and ordain, let my life be lengthened, and increase my sustenance, and . . . (ask for your wishes)
