- Kirkus Indie review

From his examination of the nature of God to his deliberation on perfecting human virtues, the teachings of the seventh-century saint, Imam Ali, are precious jewels. They are as sparkling with truth and spirituality today as they were fourteen hundred years ago. Now, Syed Akhtar shares their transcendent, thought-provoking messages in "What is True Success?" This magnificent manual for inspired living is a rousing and reverent inroad to obtaining an elevated spirituality and understanding the context of our life. The book, in its first wide release in English, presents Imam Ali's sermons and writings in an abridged easy-to-read form.

Syed H. Akhtar is a cardiologist who resides in Austin, Texas. He has been involved in interfaith activity for many years. He believes that modern humanity could derive many benefits from the teachings of Imam Ali, selected and topically presented in "What is True Success?"
